AIRESURF ANNOUNCES SYMBOL CHANGE

Airesurf Networks Holdings Inc. (“Airesurf”)(CNQ-ANH), announces the change of its CNQ trading symbol from AIRE to ANH.

Symbols for all companies currently listed on the CNQ have been changed from four-letter symbols to three-letter symbols.

“The CNQ's migration to the X-stream platform made this change necessary”, said Bryan D. Moir, CEO of Airesurf.

“It will remove certain technology barriers and improve access to the market and conform with the traditional symbol regime of other world stock exchanges.”

Airesurf is a researcher and developer of wireless (WiFi) digital communication amplifiers. The Company recently received FCC approval for its MegaFI™ System. For more information, please visit: www.airesurfnetworks.com

For further information, contact: Mr. Bryan Moir, Chief Executive Officer, at (905) 943-4043 or feedback@airesurfnetworks.com.

The CNQ has not reviewed and does not accept responsibility for the adequacy of this release.
